Scouting for Food Drive--November 1, 5, & 8, 2008

Participation in this event is mandatory in order to attend any of the Troop's winter skiing events. Full Class A uniforms are required for both the bag distribution and collection. This event has three parts: bag distribution, sign preparation and installation, and food collection. Sign preparation and installation are reserved for those few Scouts who are unable to make the bag distribution or collection days because of other troop events, sports, or similar conflicts. We need 26 Scouts and 12 adults for bag distribution and 26 Scouts and 12 adults for food collection. Meet at Parish Center at 9:00 a.m. on 11/1 for bag distribution. Sign preparation and installation 11/5, time TBA. Food collection must take place on Saturday, 11/8, and will start at 9:00 a.m., regardless of weather conditions (the food collection trucks leave the collection areas early that afternoon). Food collection rarely takes more than 2 hours start to finish, and sign collection must be done immediately after food collection is finished.

Many adult drivers/monitors are needed for all three stages of this event (minimum 13 each weekend)!

Adults: PLEASE HELP!
